

Steele Road, London, N17 6YA

£365,000

Nestled on the charming Steele Road in London, this delightful first-floor Victorian conversion flat offers a perfect blend of character and modern living. Built in 1900, the property boasts a bright and airy atmosphere, enhanced by its well-maintained condition throughout.

With two spacious bedrooms, this flat is ideal for young professionals, couples, or small families seeking a comfortable home in a vibrant area. The reception room provides a welcoming space for relaxation and entertaining, while the well-appointed bathroom ensures convenience for daily routines.

One of the standout features of this property is the loft space, which previously had permission for conversion. This presents an exciting opportunity for potential buyers to expand their living space, should they wish to reactivate the planning permission.

Location is key, and this flat does not disappoint. Situated close to Seven Sisters tube station and Bruce Grove Overground, commuting into central London is both quick and easy. Additionally, the surrounding area is rich in local amenities, including parks, schools, and shops, making it a highly desirable place to live.

This Victorian flat on Steele Road is a rare find, combining historical charm with modern conveniences in a sought-after location. Whether you are looking to invest or find your next home, this property is certainly worth considering.
